

Boarding School Education Dambimangari Project Fund

POLICY: An amount of $10,000.00 per school year can be applied for Dambimangari children to attend private/boarding school. All applications will need to be referred to the Project Committee for approval. Applications will require confirmation from Abstudy in regard to what funding they can provide. Scholarship information to be provided with the application. Only students with boarding requirements can apply under this policy. Payments can only be made upon receiving an invoice and/or receipt from the provider. Please refer to the current policy document for full details.

I understand that payment will only be made if there are enough funds held in the Private Education Fund account.
